MORNING PROGRAM FOR 100 UDAVI STUDENTS in Tamil, Hindi & English.

- The morning starts at 08.40 in Udavi School with a painting work shop about Kabir with Srivi Kalyan graduated from Harvard University in Arts & Pedagogy and living in Chennai. Her work shown in Kalakendra from the 25th of March to the 10th of April is inspired by the kabir's poetry.
- Then introduction to the Kabir poetry and spirituality with Jaya, Bindhu and Archana presenting a theatre play from Jaya Madhavan (she also wrote the book "Kabir the weaver poet") with acapella songs, play and dance for about 100 children above 7th grade.

AFTERNOON PROGRAM FOR VILLAGERS & AUROVILIANS in Tamil, Hindi & English.

- Jaya, Bindhu and Archana were performing a second time for the parents Udavi School's students. Few aurovilians where also there. Then Audrey offered a free painting work shop for the school children on Kabir music.
- We also present "Had Anhad" (Bounded-Boundless) a film directed by Shabnam Virmani. Kabir was a 15th century mystic poet of north India who defied the boundaries between Hindu and Muslim. This film journeys through song and poem into the politics of religion, and finds a myriad answers on both sides of the hostile border between India and Pakistan.

EVENING PROGRAM FOR VILLAGERS & AUROVILIANS in Tamil, Hindi & English.

- The evening starts with a beautiful moon rise. Classical (Mooralal Marwada & Mahesha Ram) and modern (Bindhu, Vedanth & Vasu) kabir music mixed with devotional Sufis music (Ajaj Maideen) were presented. Many kids from the village were there with their families. The Udavi sport ground was a perfect space to settle the nicely decorated stage set up by the Matrimandir Maintenance Team.
- Tea has been offered (dream team, Johnny & Patrick) to everyone in clay pots nod to impermanence and ecology.

AFTERNOON PROGRAM FOR AUROVILIANS, Hindi & English.

- "Kabira Khada Bazaar Mein" directed by Shabnam Virmani. This film interweaves the Kabir's deification by the Kabir Panth sect with his secular appropriation by the social activist group Eklavya. The story unfolds through the life of Prahlad Tipanya, a Dalit singer whose participation in both domains, begins to raise difficult questions for him about ritual and organized religion.
- "Koi Sunta Hai" (Someone is Listening) directed by Shabnam Virmani. This film searches for that elusive sound, Kabir urges us to hear. Where does it resonate? Journeying between folk and classical, oral and written, rural and urban expressions of this 15th century mystic poet of north India, the film finds moments of both continuity and rupture between these disparate worlds.
- Kalakendra opened its doors with a beautiful arts exhibition with Srivi Kalyan & Sandhya Gopinath (Chennai) with painting and drawings, Marty (Auroville) with photos, Christophe (Auroville) with videos, Orijit Sen (Delhi) with printings and the painting done by Udavi School Students during the two Udavi's work shops.

EVENING PROGRAM FOR AUROVILIANS 5 artists with troupe.

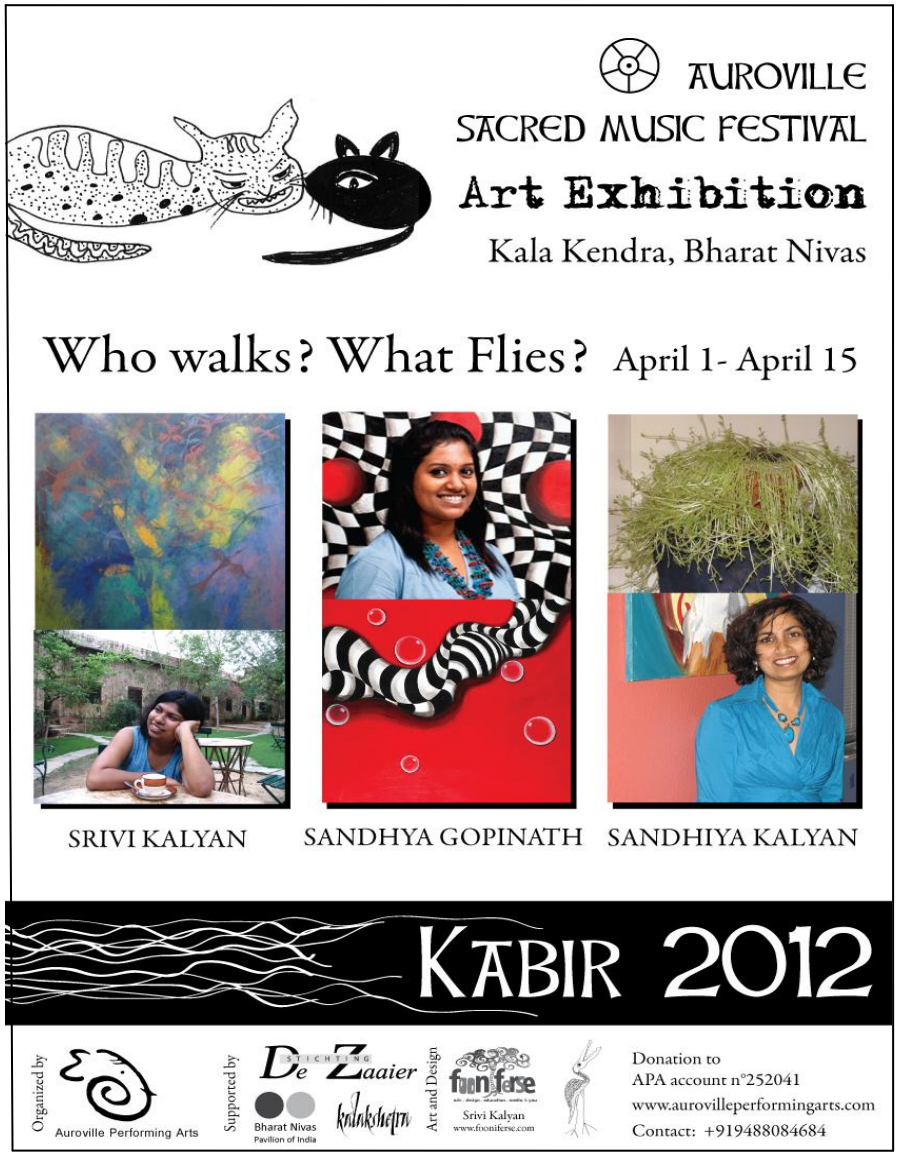

- The stage was beautifully decorated with pots, grass and big banners of calygraphie.
- A special guest Hemant Chauhan came from Gujarat. The Bharat Nivas was full, but unfortunately the AC did not work for one hour and the heat repelled people.

Ressources

- The Sponsorts were : Aarpanaa (4%), Bharat Nivas (23%), Kalakshetra (10%), SAIIER (8%), Stiching De Zaaier (55%),
- The donations were mainly from aurovilans. 41% were from Auroville Performing Arts members who organised the festival.
- One hundred T-Shirts were printed and one has been offered to each volunteers. The benefits were small (around 6000 rs) but these gave us cash flow during the Festival.
- We received in kind a lot of support with Sharnga Guest House who accomodated the 42 artists during 4 days and nights, Visitor Center who offered diner for 60 persons, Tanto Pizza who offered daily pizza to the technical team (sound and light), Johnny who offered tea to every one and set up magic space in Fertile for the Sunday lunch, Solar Kitchen who gave aurovilan price for the daily food…. All volunteers who gave their energy, time and petrol, phone and of course the artists who took half fees …. All these donation allows us to save a minimum of 86 000 rs.

Expenses

- The Art Exhibition in Kala Kendra shown 6 artists withdrawings from Orijeet Sen, paintings from Srivi Kalyan, photos from Marty, sculptures from Sandhya Gopinath and Auroson and videos compilation made by Christophe.
- The catering and accommodation were 12% of the total budget instead of 21%. The kind offered by aurovilians allowed to cut this budget in two.

- The communication includes banners (8) , flyers (500), T-Shirts (100), web site[1], press and trailer.
- The film screening was only 1% of the budget. 4 films have been shown in Cinema Paradiso and the Bharat Nivas Auditorium.
- The transportation of performing artists is more than 25% of the budget. We received a huge support from Auroville Transport Service who let us use their bus on long schedule for a very reasonable amount.
- All together, rental of material and space, decoration and technique the artists shows is 50% of the budget. Artists received a contribution of 4500 rs each per shows.
